Let's get started:

First, Complete this form, pay for your tequila and we'll give you a bottle number and membership card.

Second, Your bottle will be hand-labeled with your name and date of purchase.

Third, Are you ready?? The time is finally here! Let's open that bottle.

Fourth, Cheers! You may enjoy your tequila in a shot, on the rocks or in a margarita—with no additional charge.

Fifth, Repeat the fifth step until she is gone! You probably shouldn't take it all down in one sitting, unless you have friends to help.

Sixth, When it's time to leave, please let your server or bartender know. We'll mark a line on the bottle where the tequila is, and you'll initial it so we know how much you drank. We'll also make sure no one drinks your tequila while you're gone. We wouldn't dare.

Congressional Procedures:

As you become a distinguished member of the BelAir Agave Congress Bottle Club, we ask you to breeze through the following terms. You are purchasing one (1) bottle of Herradura Double Reposado Tequila for $100.00, not including tax or gratuity. This tequila was hand-selected by the BelAir Cantina management team in Tequila, Mexico. While we continue a tequila relationship with you, please abide by the following Agave Congress Bottle Club rules:

1. A purchased, open bottle of Herradura Double Reposado Tequila must remain behind the bar or in the Tequila cage. You may not have an opened bottle at your table. An opened bottle of tequila may never leave the restaurant, unless it is inside your belly.
2. We want to ensure that you savor the flavor of the tequila within one (1) year of the date of purchase. After this year expires, the remaining contents will become the property of BelAir Cantina, BelAir Cantina Downer or BelAir Cantina Tosa.
3. While you're enjoying drinks from your bottle, only our staff is allowed to handle your bottle.
4. With great tequila comes great responsibility. Please drink responsibly!
